To Appomattox Citizens

(EDITORIAL)

The incorporated town of Appomattox is in frightful need of a modern sewerage system. We are reliably informed that in this year of Grace, 1936, more than half of the families within the town limits do not have bathrooms and modern sewerage disposal conveniences.

Think that over for awhile before YOU READ FURTHER.

Think what it means to the health the convenience and the economic future of YOUR TOWN.

* * * * * * *

When you have done that, your first question is: "Well, what can we do about it?"

HERE'S WHAT WE CAN DO:

We can get a sewerage system and we can just about get it for nothing. IF WE WANT IT.

Uncle Sam, the generous benefactor of humanity, offers us as an outright GIFT $20,000 if we put up only $5,000 more to build and install a modern town sewerage system. Goodness knows, that's a wonderful offer, the chance of a lifetime. Hundreds of other towns have already jumped at like projects. Our town owes no money, has no bonded indebtedness and can easily finance the mere $5,000.

Well—why not accept Uncle Sam's offer and go ahead?

The answer to that one is that we have. The town council accepted the project and has worked faithfully on the project. They deserve praise for seeing a need and trying to fill it. Then why haven't we got the sewerage system?

There's the rub....that's why we are writing this.

This vital project seems to be tied up SOMEWHERE apparently on the question of whether or not forty laborers are available to do the work. The project isn't getting anywhere fast because somebody needs to do Washington, Richmond and other centers to FOLLOW THROUGH and see that Appomattox's needed improvement isn't lost in the rush. We need to get our citizens together and have one hundred per cent cooperation to back the council in its efforts, or else Chic Sale (The Specialist) can move in and hang out his shingle.

THEREFORE:

The Times Virginian respectfully asks the Mayor of Appomattox to call a mass meeting of citizens of the town one night next week at the Court House, to take collective action on this community matter.

The Times Virginian further asks the citizens to attend this meeting if and when called, and urges them to lay aside the anchor of indifference for the banner of community enterprise.

Indifference will keep us in a rut ....cooperation will send us forward. WHICH WILL IT BE?

AT THE PARAMOUNT

The world's greatest personalities are to be seen at the Paramount next week starting Monday in the "Country Doctor." For the services of the five little Dionne Quintuplets were secured and the result is a film of such human appeal and interest that none should miss it.

Dr. Allen Roy DaFoe the doctor whose skill and medical experience is alone responsible for the birth and lives of the quins lent his supervision to the production.

VETERAN IS ILL

We regret to report that Mr. George Cheatham continues ill at his home near Spout Spring. He is one of the few remaining veterans of The War Between The States.

FRANCHISE IS UP

The franchise of the Virginia Public Service Company here expires this month. The town council discussed the matter of a new franchise at its regular meeting Monday night.

To write well is to think well, to feel well and to render well; it is to possess at once intellect, soul and taste. —Buffon.

A Barber: Did you know that if you were to put this razor under a microscope it would have teeth like a saw?

Fats Parker: (groaning) Yeah. But I don't need any microscope to find that out.

Forest View

Forest View, March 4.—Hello, everybody. After a long spell of quietude .....the weather has moderated the past several days, and if it was possible to keep a whipper ready to put on the roads every two or three weeks, we would have beautiful roads at all times. Mr. R. S. WHEELER

Robert Samuel Wheeler died at his home here on Tuesday, March 3, at 1:30 A.M., after a ten day illness, from influenza and other complications.

He was born November 6, 1873, in Campbell county and was the oldest son of George William and Margaret Cardwell Wheeler. All of his early life was spent in Campbell county. About 20 years ago he moved to this county, where he has been engaged in the saw mill business, in which he was very successful.

At the age of 16 he united with Bethany church near Rustburg, and has been throughout the years a faithful and consistent member, serving for a number of years on the official board. His sterling character won for him the highest regard of all with whom he came in contact. He was a kind husband, and father and a good neighbor and sincere friend.

In the business life of the community, his opinion was regarded as safe and conservative, and he was a valued member of the town council.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday from Bethany church, at 3 P.M., by his pastor, the Rev. R. H. Humphrey, assisted by the Reverends W. K. Cunningham, C. H. Williams and W. M. Thompson.

Active pallbearers were: W. P. Cannon, C. W. Smith, Paul Cawthon, Willie Moore, D. H. Cardwell and Edwin Shepherd.

Besides his wife, who was before her marriage, Miss Ruth Moore, he is survived by one daughter, Mary Ann Wheeler, and the following brothers and sisters: Miss Lula Wheeler, Alfred W. Jesse L. J. D. and G. W. Wheeler, all of Rustburg.

The following resolution on the death of Mr. Wheeler, comes from the Town Council, of which he was a member.

"A resolution of sympathy, respect and love, as adopted by the Town Council of Appomattox at the death of their fellow council-man and Christian gentleman, R. S. Wheeler:

"Whereas, God in His all-wise providence has seen fit to take out of this life our beloved brother and friend,

"Therefore be it resolved, that we extend to this bereaved loved ones our most sincere sympathy in this time of sorrow and loss and hasten to assure them that we too feel this great loss that has come not to the family alone, but to all who love true manliness and a stalwart Christian character, for none who knew him ever had to question where he stood as between right and wrong, moral or immorality.

"We loved him because of his true greatness: humble, unassuming, plain straightforward and honest outstanding characteristics of his life. R. S. Wheeler was a charter member of the Town Council of Appomattox and had been reelected to serve his town at every election since the town was incorporated in 1925, and was never too busy to attend the meetings and look after the interest of his people unless prevented by sickness.

"We can all well afford to emulate the life of this our beloved citizen and one we were proug to call our friend.

—Mayor and Town Council of Appomattox."
